What is it about: The workshop follows a series of exploratory interviews conducted in 2020 of 26 US and Indian cities exploring how COVID-19 related closures have impacted urban provisioning systems, and opportunities for transitions towards resilience, equity and sustainability.

The goals of the workshop are:
- Share and gain consensus on preliminary findings from the interviews of city leaders.
- Share innovations, lessons learned and knowledge gaps across cities.
- Facilitate group discussions for strategic thinking on post-COVID cities and nexus opportunities at the intersection of resilience, equity and sustainability.

Who will be at the workshop: City leaders, planners and engineers from the US and India.

WORKSHOP DATE AND TIMES

April 16, 2021
10:00 AM to 12:00 Noon EDT (US)
